The book manuscript is finally off to reviewers. I'm glad to have the project off of my desk, and onto the desks of others.

But it also means that I have a relatively polished book manuscript ready for general perusal. Click here if you would like to read it. (Warning--the link is to a 650 KB .pdf file.) I would love to hear comments and criticisms.

I'm also offering a $.10 bounty for every typo found. First come, first served.
